Learn to enter a child's world through the magic of play, the language of children.

- ❖ This workshop is for therapists, counselors, social workers and others who work with children ages 3 to 12 and are trained in the skills of Child Centered Play Therapy (CCPT). The focus of this workshop will be on deepening knowledge in the areas of understanding themes, recognizing stages and tracking progress. We will also look at trauma play as well as ways of involving parents in the therapy process. In addition to didactic material, role plays and videos will be used. Participants are encouraged to bring case material. Maximum of 6 participants.
